About Me

I'm John Benidict Misal, a 19-year-old student currently pursuing a BSIT degree at Pamantasan ng Lungsod ng Valenzuela. I have a strong interest in technology, programming, and design. My academic journey is fueled by a passion for learning and growing in the field of IT. I enjoy finding creative solutions to problems and am always eager to expand my skills in both technical and artistic areas.

I'm committed to applying my knowledge to real-world projects, with a focus on continuous improvement and collaboration. My goal is to contribute meaningfully to the tech industry while further developing my expertise.
